To Whom It May Concern:

I wanted to write to let you know how important E. A. Dion and your support, dedication and service is to our success.

We have used E. A. Dion for close to 30 years and the partnership that we have is unparalleled. From the excellent customer service to the creative design and development of the products, we can always count on Dion. The production, delivery and always on-time service makes Dion a critical partner for us.

We look forward to many more years working together.
